EXHIBITION SEARCHING THE LAND

Gallery opening times 2 March - 28 March
Thur - Sat, 12pm - 6pm

An installation of a common message captured by Margaux Souchon in her photography, and in a sound journal by Luka Lukasik, activating both vision and magical mysterious flow.

Margaux Souchon is a French Art student currently touring the UK with her photo reportage shot in Croatia, Montenegro, Albania and Greece about a van full of hippies on the road to set up Jedi Academy. Luka is a music student at the University of Kent exploring and researching the phenomenon of sustainability in every possible form. His project 'Jedi Academy' is an advanced system of education focusing on renewable energy, ethics and world travel.

Performances and workshops will be held at POP as part of the exhibition. For more information, contact Luka on 07553 927676.
